

Notification of Admission

Admission is granted to students who meet the minimum requirements for admission to the University. The University reserves the right to require additional information from applicants and to accept or reject applicants on a case-by-case basis. The University also reserves the right to require additional information from applicants and to accept or reject applicants on a case-by-case basis.

Certificate in Criminology and Criminal Justice

The Certificate in Criminology and Criminal Justice is a program of study that provides students with the knowledge and skills necessary to enter the field of criminology and criminal justice. The program is designed for students who are interested in pursuing a career in law enforcement, corrections, or a related field.

Certificate in Criminology and Criminal Justice Application Procedures

Applicants for the Certificate in Criminology and Criminal Justice must complete the following application procedures:

1. Complete the application form and submit it to the Admissions Office.
2. Pay the application fee of $55 ($40 for students who are currently enrolled in a program at the University).
3. Submit official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended.
4. Submit a letter of recommendation from a faculty member or professional in the field.
5. Submit a resume or curriculum vitae.

No candidate who fails to meet the minimum requirements for admission to the University is eligible for admission to the program. The University reserves the right to require additional information from applicants and to accept or reject applicants on a case-by-case basis. The University also reserves the right to require additional information from applicants and to accept or reject applicants on a case-by-case basis.

Application Deadlines

Applications for admission to the University are accepted on a rolling basis. The deadline for admission to the University is August 31st.

Notification of Admission

Admission is granted to students who meet the minimum requirements for admission to the University. The University reserves the right to require additional information from applicants and to accept or reject applicants on a case-by-case basis. The University also reserves the right to require additional information from applicants and to accept or reject applicants on a case-by-case basis.

F. Registration

Registration is the process of enrolling in a course. Students must register for each course they wish to take. Registration is typically done online through the University's registration system.

- A. Add a course to your schedule.
- B. Drop a course from your schedule.
- C. Withdraw from a course.
- D. Add a section to your schedule.
- E. Drop a section from your schedule.
- F. Withdraw from a section.

Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students. However, students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.

Registration Procedures for Continuing and Returning Students

Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.

1. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.
3. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.

Registration Procedures for New First-Year Students

Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.

1. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.
3. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.
4. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.

Course Load

1. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.
3. Students who are currently enrolled in a program (A.S. or B.S.) and are returning to the university after a break of one or more years should follow the same registration procedures as new students.

Course Numbers

1. First Digit

- 0000 -
- 1000 -
- 2000 -
- 3000 -
- 4000 -
- 5000 -

2. Second/Third Digit

3. Fourth Digit

- 6 = 6
- 3 = 3

Course Sections

A. ()

Withdrawal from Course (academic year)

A.

Repeating Courses

A.

Policy on UNB Courses

A.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

2. The second part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the auditor in ensuring the integrity of the financial statements.

No. 5 den a e eminded ha he UNB ched le ofco e addition and i hd a al i info ce fo an UNB co e in hich he egi e. The e da e a e diffe en fom he STU ched le. All change o o egi a ion in UNB co e m be eco ded on he a o ia e STU fom and a o ed b he Regi a Of ce.